

Rose Cottage, Port Logan

Rose Cottage is a traditional farm cottage, sitting in its own grounds at the side of a quiet country road.

With extensive views over the surrounding countryside.

If you are looking for a place where you can rest and relax, and enjoy the fabulous beauty of South West Scotland, then Rose Cottage will be high on your list.

Rose Cottage is just a ten minute walk away from Port Logan, made famous by the popular BBC series '2000 Acres Of Sky'.

Lovely sandy beaches, botanic gardens, sea fishing, bird watching, horse riding and countryside walks, this beautiful corner of Galloway in south west Scotland is an ideal choice for a self catering holiday.

Our accommodation consists of sitting room with open fireplace, one double bedroom (double bed). Fully equipped kitchen and bathroom.

Ample car parking is available for anyone wishing to bring their own boat.

Well behaved pets are also very welcome
